High Tribute Paid City's War Dead

Sacrifice Of Heroes Painted As An Example To Youth Of The Community

Sierra Madre's tribute of gratitude to its war dead was paid in reverent exercises conducted Monday, Memorial Day, at the city cemetery.

Standing beside the graves of men who laid down their lives in the nation's wars, school children, war veterans, city officials, representatives of social and fraternal organizations and residents generally heard Judge Wilbur F. Thayer invoke the spirits of those who shed their blood at Valley Forge, at Gettysburg and at Chateau Thierry.

Sunlight filtered through lifting clouds as the judge, answering his question "What was it all for?" declared that "they made the supreme sacrifice to establish and defend the great human liberties."

"For these things our nation's defenders died," the judge continued—"Freedom of speech, press and the ballot; the right of petition, assembly and trial by jury; the sanctity of the American home, and the pursuit of happiness."

Speaking to the city's youth, the judge exhorted them to "determine the Right and then make all speed to see that the Right prevails."

"His strength was as the strength of ten because his heart was pure," the judge said.

He stressed the point that the solving of tomorrow's problems "more than ever before depends on a knowledge of the processes of constitutional and representative government."

Heading the parade down Sierra Madre Blvd., were the stars and bars of Old Glory, followed by the flags of Sierra Madre Post No. 297, American Legion, and Sierra Madre Post No. 3208, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Next in line was the children's band, representing Monrovia Post No. 44, American Legion, the martial music ringing out bravely in the morning air.

Then came the Boy Scouts, girls in their brown uniforms; the trim of the Legion Junior Auxiliary, wearing blue capes and white dresses; and the school children, trooping beside the watchful eyes of their teachers.

Asking the assembled citizenry to "preserve that freedom for which the nation's departed heroes laid down their lives," the invocation of Rev. R. Stewart Sheriff opened the services.

Following the spirited playing of "The Stars and Stripes Forever" by the children's band, under direction of Gabriel Bartold, Legion Adjutant Howard Cant solemnly read the list of those who have answered the supreme roll call and are at rest in the Sierra Madre cemetery.

Treble voices echoed across the flower-decked graves as the school children sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee" and "My Own United States" and recited the American's Creed.

Concluding Judge Thayer's address the crowd, with bared heads, hymned "The Star Spangled Banner," after which Dean Arnold Bode pronounced the benediction.

A moment later the firing squad quartet raised their rifles and three salvos to the dead shattered the silence.

Then, clear and steady, came the throat-tightening notes of taps. Sierra Madre once again had paid its tribute of gratitude to its war dead.

Sierra Madrean Ordained As A Clergyman

For the first time in its sixty nine years of existence, the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, a Eucharistic devotional society within the Episcopal Church, held its annual meeting and conference in Los Angeles this week.

At the opening service at St. Matthias' Church, Washington Blvd. and Normandie Ave., John F. Moore, son of Rev. H. B. Moore, a former rector of the Church of the Ascension here, was ordained to the priesthood.

Eastern Star Plans Farewell Party For Mrs. Wammock

Mrs. Alice Hogan, worthy matron of the local O.E.S. chapter, will be hostess at a farewell dinner party Monday night at the Masonic Temple, given as a courtesy to Mrs. Mary Wammock, past worthy matron, who is leaving soon for Miri, Sarawak, North Borneo, to join her husband who left the latter part of April to accept a position with an oil company.

Worthy Matrons of 1936 from Pasadena, Altadena, Monrovia, Temple City and El Monte chapters will fill the chairs and bid Mrs. Wammock farewell. All members are urged to attend.

Ask Fund For Start On Flood Job

Money For Preliminary Work On $5,000,000 Control Project Recommended

Taking a major step in the development of the $5,000,000 Sierra Madre-Arcadia flood control project, the county board of supervisors yesterday had on file a recommendation of Chief Engineer Howell that the sum of $21,980, to be used for preliminary work on the project, be included in the county's maintenance fund budget.

The money is for the purpose of providing funds for preliminary surveys for location below Orange Grove avenue and will start the way toward the preparation of a comprehensive flood control program for the entire Sierra Madre-Arcadia area.

Due to many improvements going on in the district south of here, the water runoff has become a problem of major importance. The city of Arcadia, co-operating with the county, already has spent several thousand dollars to take care of portions of the flood waters of the district.

As soon as plans of the vast project are definitely completed and agreed upon, the county flood control district and city officials of Sierra Madre and Arcadia will take steps to finance the complete construction.

No Liquor Here Until 5 Today

Sale of liquor in Sierra Madre will be prohibited between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. today because of the school district election.

Martin Gets Many Laws On The Books

Local Assemblyman Wins Appropriation For Mild Offender's Prison

Home from the legislative wars, which came to a strenuous close early Sunday morning, Assemblyman Frank G. Martin yesterday was receiving congratulations of voters on passage of his Assembly bill making a $2,000,000 appropriation for construction of the first unit of the Southern California prison for mild offenders. The bill went through committees of the Assembly and Senate and after a single opposing vote.

Under Assemblyman Martin's measure of two years ago creating this prison and making an appropriation of $400,000 to purchase a site, a site has been bought in San Bernardino County, near Ontario — 1,300 acres of farming land. Construction of the first unit will begin soon. Governor Merriam is negotiating with the federal government for an allocation of at least $2,000,000 of federal funds toward building the prison.

"The prison measure has been one of the supreme efforts of my legislative career," the Assemblyman declared yesterday. "I feel more proud of the passage of this bill than any other law that I have been instrumental in having adopted."

"I was also author of the measure placing a moratorium on the sale of property for delinquent taxes. This law is in effect until February 1, 1939. I was interested as coauthor in liberalizing the old age pension law."

"All bills of which I was author passed the legislature and all have been signed by the Governor, except one, and that is now awaiting signature. It is AB2854, which establishes a pension and retirement system for county foresters, fire wardens and other employees of the county fire system."

"Another bill of which I was author, that has become law, provides for the compulsory cleaning of lots; and another makes it legal for any county fire warden or other employee of the county in the fire fighting system to call civilians into service to extinguish a fire. This pertains especially to forest, brush and grass fires."

Discussing the scandal that broke in the closing days of the legislature, Mr. Martin said: "The scandal charges are extremely unfortunate. Without discussing their merits, I would ask everybody to keep open minded as to the membership of the Legislature as a whole. The charges made affect only a few members, and they have not yet been proved. However, I am very strongly in favor of making a most far-reaching investigation, and if anybody is guilty, that they should be dealt with severely and that whoever is innocent of the charges may be cleared of suspicion."

"I was very much pleased to join with Assemblywoman Eleanor Miller in having Pasadena Community Playhouse made a State theatre, and in having State participation in the next Tournament of Roses."

Treat In Store For Photograph And Flower Fans

Amateur and professional photographers will gather at the Wistaria Vine on Sunday evening to enjoy an illustrated program and supper at which Ernest Williams, prominent color photographer, will show pictures taken this spring of the English countryside and gardens as well as of California flowers fields.

These programs which begin at 6:30 each Sunday night, are becoming popular with Sierra Madreans.

Interest On Canyon Bonds Paid; But Principal Lags

Canyon Park property owners in A. & I. District No. 2 were jubilant yesterday, following the decision of the city council last week to foot the bill on past-due interest payments to the tune of $1421.36.

Their jubilation, however, will be short lived, as another interest payment, totaling $1289.51, becomes due next July 1.

It seems to be just one interest payment after another for the Mattoon district residents, who were all afire only a few years ago to have the dirt roads in the Canyon converted into up-to-date paved highways. They got the highways, but along with them they got a flock of bills.

While the council agreed to fork over the $1421.36 interest payment, which has been due since last January 1, it declared itself unable to do anything about the $4000 principal, which became due last December 23.

Firemen Big Party Tomorrow Night

Firemen today are praying there won't be a fire today or tomorrow. The reason: they're up to their necks in last-minute preparations for their first annual benefit dance, to be held tomorrow night at the Woman's clubhouse.

With pardonable pride the boys are looking forward to what they will be one of the liveliest combination card party and dances ever staged at the clubhouse.

Card tables will be set out for play at 8 p.m., with prizes being offered for high scores. The dancing, to the tunes of Chuck Anderson and his boys, will get under way at 8:30. Proceeds from the affair will go to the department's uniform and clothes fund.

Enlargement Of Wilson Hi Halted

Meeting Told Teachers Salary Increase Will Mean Boost In Tax Rate

Unless a PWA grant is forthcoming, enlargement of the Woodrow Wilson Junior High School will be postponed indefinitely.

Starting proponents of the junior high school expansion program in the face yesterday was this fact, following last week's preliminary public hearing on the Pasadena school district budget. A PWA grant has been asked for the project, Dr. J. Tyler Parker, jr., board member, told the 75 persons present, adding that, if not granted, it would be impossible to do the work.

Charging that the enlargement program was already three years overdue, Col. H. B. Hersey, spokesman for a large Wilson delegation, asserted that gymnasium facilities at the school were inadequate and unhealthful and that the school, constructed originally for 600 students, now had an enrollment of 1000.

"We should be willing to buy school privileges until it hurts," Col. Hersey declared, "as this is one investment we will never regret."

Firing a counterblast to the colonel's statement, Dana C. Smith, spokesman for the Property Owners Division of the Realty Board, stated that his committee requested that all property owned by the school board and no longer useable for school purposes be sold immediately, even if at a sacrifice, and that all construction programs be financed from the money thus raised.

He made it clear that his committee would endorse only those projects that could be paid for without increasing the tax rate. Turning to the subject of restoration of teachers' salaries, Smith said that "the teachers are entitled to some restoration, but this should depend entirely upon what can be done about the rest of the increased cost of education."

"The teachers should bear some of this increased cost," he declared.

Supt. of Schools John A. Sexton frankly told the meeting that if teachers' salaries are to be "restored," an increase in the tax rate over last year's tax rate would be inevitable. Final hearing on the budget will be held on August 2.

Bella Vista Terrace Is Sold

Sale of the city's largest apartment court, Bella Vista Terrace, was announced yesterday by Mrs. Ralph B. Wilson, the former owner and manager.

The property, which includes 12 apartments and elaborately landscaped grounds, has been purchased at an undisclosed figure by Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Hart of Eagle Rock. Mr. Hart for six years has been an automobile dealer in Eagle Rock.

Mrs. Wilson and her sons, Thomas and Donald, have moved to North Hollywood.

Comprising one and one-half acres, Bella Vista Terrace was built by Fred B. Lewis, formerly well-known here, in 1912.

Name School Officials Here Today

Mrs. Hinkley Unopposed; Eight Seek Seat On The Hi-Jr. College Board

With eight candidates vying for three offices on the Pasadena school board, today's school district elections promise a record turnout, in contrast to the apathetic interest usually evidenced in such elections.

Only candidate on the local district ballot is Mrs. Henrietta G. Hinkley, recently appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Gilbert S. Boward. She is running for re-election for the usual three-year term.

Interest, however, is centered largely on the Pasadena district race, in which eight candidates, two of them incumbents, await the voters' decision.

The grammar school building will be the only polling place here. Booths will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Sierra Madreans with children in either Pasadena Jaycee or Woodrow Wilson Junior High will have a particular interest in the Crown City race. But any Sierra Madre voter, whether a parent or not, is eligible to vote in the Pasadena election, this city being a part of the high school and junior college district.

The list of candidates includes Mrs. Louise B. Hoblit, president of the board; W. L. Blair, managing editor of a Pasadena newspaper; Vernon M. Brydolf, attorney; Dr. James H. McKellar, physician; Melbourne de Paszthory, John Walko and Robert H. Dorman, business men, and H. L. Marguerum, banker. Blair and Mrs. Hoblit are the incumbents seeking reelection.

In a campaign statement issued yesterday H. L. Marguerum declares he is opposed, "except as a last resort," to increasing the present tax rate and that he favors recognition being given to the need for salary increases "based on the individual merits of each teacher rather than any blanket increase based simply on pre-depression values."

Stating that he wishes every child "to be able to avail himself of the splendid facilities now offered for the development of his physical well-being," he declares, however, that "too much stress must not be placed on them to the detriment of having the child well grounded in the fundamentals of education."

Merchants Continue Win Streak

Defeat Los Angeles Tossers 14-4—Tough Game Looks Tonight

With a clatter of hits behind some flossy pitching by Joby Kiggins, the Sierra Madre Merchants baseball team won as they chased over the Hoffman team of Los Angeles on the school grounds Tuesday night. The score was 14 to 4 and the home team taking the lead in the second inning was never headed.

Sanchez and "Buster" Brain blasted out home runs as their mates batted timely and hard. Kiggins fanned 11 and was complete master of the situation from the start.

Tonight (Friday) on the school grounds, the local Merchants will

Another Victim For Dog Poisoner

Another Sierra Madrean's dog has been poisoned.

Latest victim in the rapidly-increasing list of such outrages is the Boston terrier of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Limble, of 814 Woodland Drive.

Mrs. Limble went out to her mail box last weekend, her black and white pet frisking playfully at her heels. Less than ten minutes later she discovered the dog under a bed—dead.

He died of strychnine poisoning, according to records of Humane Officer C. Jerry Jones.

Deadline For Weed Destruction Set For Wednesday

Out-of-town property owners were reminded by postcards mailed yesterday that all weeds or rubbish on their lots must be removed and destroyed on or before next Wednesday. Otherwise the work will be done by the city and cost charged to the property owners.

It is pointed out that due to incidental charges the work will cost 50 per cent or more if done by the city.

Cold Winters Bring Most Rain, Late Figures Show

With warm weather this week virtually killing chances of any further rain until next fall, the precipitation record here since last September 1 was announced as 38.87 inches yesterday by Joe Horan, city pumping plant supervisor.

The figure is nearly 10 inches above the seasonal average of 24 inches for the 48-year span from 1888 to 1936 and nearly double last season's figure of 19.03 inches.

Up to June 1, 1936, last season's total stood at 18.98 inches. Highest seasonal precipitation ever recorded here was 48.61 inches in 1889-90. The second highest fall was 45.16 inches in 1913-14, seeming to prove that cold winters, or those in which the temperature descends to low levels, provide the greatest precipitation.

Sierra Madre's driest season was 1898-99, when only 8.34 inches were recorded. Second driest season was 1923-24, with 10.04 inches.

Graduating Class At School Honors Teacher At Party

Winding up their grammar school days in bangup style, the sixth grade boys and girls had a party yesterday.

Gathering at noon in the school music room, the youngsters put on their show, which had been worked out beforehand by Gloria Daugherty, and they had a rattling good time.

Highlight of the festivities was the presentation of a navy-blue alligator purse to Miss Wheeler, sixth grade teacher. As she unwrapped the gift the children formed a circle around her and sang lustily, "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Refreshments topped off the proceedings.

Sierra Madrean Lands Biggest Fish Of Season

The biggest sea bass of the season was pulled off the hook of a line manipulated by Seth Van Wickle of Sierra Madre off Long Beach yesterday. The bass weighed 142 pounds and it took 48 anxious minutes to land him.

News reel cameras clicked when Van Wickle exhibited his prize. He was a member of a Sierra Madre fishing party that included Edward LaLone, his brother-in-law, Alice and Frances LaLone, Joyce and Phyllis Fowler.

Judge Neale Rallies After Operation

The Judge, who complained of suffering abdominal pains Wednesday morning, was stricken suddenly late in the afternoon.

The governor is expected to discuss events in the recently-closed session of the state legislature. President R. C. Lewis of the local Chamber will head a delegation of Sierra Madreans.

Delinquent Taxes Here Slumping

Enviably Record Hung Up By The City On This Year's Collections

Sierra Madre's 1936-37 tax delinquency is slightly under 10 per cent, one of the best records of any community in the state, City Clerk Waverly E. Pratt announced yesterday in revealing that tax collections now stand at $56,303.10, out of a total general assessment of $62,445.

Actual delinquency for the city is 9.8 per cent. Inasmuch as this figure includes a 60 per cent delinquency in Canyon Park A. & L. District No. 2 officials declared the city's general showing equals if not surpasses the record of any other community in the state.

Were it not for the Canyon Park delinquency, the city's tardiness as a whole would be only about six per cent, it was pointed out.

Attention was called to the fact that the library, park, and interest and sinking funds, as well as the general fund, are taken care of by the $62,445 total general assessment. This figure is exclusive of the special assessment district levies.

Womans Club Bridge Party Proves A Notable Success

Edgar Harrison Wileman, noted interior decorator for and instructor at UCLA, will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club on Wednesday, June 9. This lecture will be open to the public without charge.

Dr. Heagerty To Succeed Dean Bode

Episcopal Vestry Also Elects Present Ascension Head Rector As Emeritus

Dr. William B. Heagerty, of Altadena, present assistant at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Pasadena, where he has been serving voluntarily for the past year after a distinguished career in the army, the church, and the United States Indian Service, was elected by the vestry of the Church of the Ascension this week to succeed the retiring rector, Dean Arnold G. H. Bode. Dr. Heagerty will take up his duties in September.

In the interval between Dean Bode's departure for Europe and the advent of Dr. Heagerty, the local church will be served by the Rev. Franklin H. Miller, a gifted clergyman of Pasadena, now retired, who has many friends in Sierra Madre.

At the same vestry meeting during which Dr. Heagerty was elected, Dean Bode was elected rector emeritus. Both elections were unanimous.

Dr. Heagerty intends to dispose of his present home in Pasadena and occupy the present rectory on Laurel avenue. Dean Bode and his family—unless war upsets their present plans—will prepare their permanent home here in Sierra Madre before leaving for their extended visit to relatives in New York, London and Florence, Italy. They expect to leave about the end of July and return by Christmas.

In view of the widespread regret at the resignation and retirement of Dean Bode, the election of Dr. Heagerty is regarded as most fortunate.

Dr. Heagerty, still in early middle-age, was born in Ireland and received his academic education at Queens College, Cork. He was later graduated in medicine from the famous medical school of Edinburgh, Scotland, shortly after graduation coming to America. It was here that he pursued his studies for his present work, at the Seabury Divinity School in Minnesota, of which he is also an honored graduate.

During the World War, Dr. Heagerty entered the Medical Corps of the United States Army and went overseas as a Major. He is now a Lieutenant Colonel (inactive) of the Medical Corps. On his return from overseas he entered the Indian Medical Service and for several years was stationed among the Navajos, where he accumulated a vast amount of experience and innumerable friends.

Then, becoming a medical missionary for the Episcopal Church, he was sent among the Chippewas of Minnesota, where he also did valuable work. At the demand of his Navajo friends he then returned to them for a period, remaining in Arizona until 1932. Since that time he has been engaged in regular church work, mostly in the northern part of California.

His love for Southern California, however, is of long standing. Prior to his purchase of a home in Altadena he visited Sierra Madre and has ever since felt a strong attachment for the place.

Dr. Heagerty is married and has no children.

Many Local Students To Graduate

Wilson And Jaycee Exercises To Be Held With Pageant In Rose Bowl June 18

Colorful pageantry, the theme of which this year is "Freedom Through Democracy," will mark commencement exercises on June 18 in Pasadena's famed Rose Bowl for graduates of five junior high schools, John Muir Technical High School and Pasadena Junior College.

Sierra Madre boys and girls will receive their diplomas at the conclusion of the dramatic and impressive ceremonies.

The grand total of 2600 students, all graduates of the seven Pasadena secondary schools, will take part in the evening's events.

Between the singing of "Praise Ye the Father," the traditional professional, which will follow a concert of the five junior high school bands, and the beginning of the elaborate pageant, there will be a brief talk by Superintendent of Schools John A. Sexton; music by the Melody Makers, a group of young junior college violinists who play without accompaniment; the presentation of the different graduating classes, and an address to them by Mrs. Louis B. Hoblit, president of the board of education.

The diplomas will be awarded during the course of the elaborate and beautiful pageant which will illustrate the growth of democratic thinking from the time of the struggle between the Hebrews and Egyptians down to the present day.

Stage effects with symbolic structures illuminated by special lighting arrangements will be erected at the south end of the Rose Bowl and the audience will be seated on the east and west sides of the stadium.

The band concert will start at 6:45 p.m. and the procession will get under way at 7:15 p.m. Following is the list of Woodrow Wilson Junior High School graduates from Sierra Madre:

City Property Is Scene Of First Brush Fire

Summer more or less made its official appearance here Tuesday.

The day was June the first—and there was a brush fire down by the city pumping plant.

The fire department's La France pumper sped to the scene and then stood by for nearly an hour as the firemen allowed the flames to clear off several acres of weeds.

Cause of the blaze, as usual, was smoldering rubbish on the city dump.

Local Actor To Play In Noted Eastern Summer Theatre

It's going to be a busy summer for Selmyr Myers, son of City Manager and Mrs. Al S. Myers.

Following closing of "Nude with Pineapple," the current Pasadena Playhouse show in which young Myers essays the leading role, he will leave the end of the month to attend the summer session at the Philadelphia Playhouse at Oak Bluffs, Martha's Vineyard Island, Mass.

Near Cape Cod, Martha's Vineyard, as the playhouse there is generally known, is one of the East's outstanding "summer" theatres. Prominent New York stage personalities regularly make guest appearances at Martha's Vineyard. Myers will thus have the chance to play opposite many big-time actresses.

Before returning to the Coast, Myers, who recently played the juvenile lead in the Ramona outdoor pageant and last winter starred in a modern-dress version of "Hamlet" at the Pasadena Playhouse, will spend some time in the East.

To be spiritually minded is life and peace.—Rom. viii. 6.

Possess yourself as much as you possibly can in peace; not by any effort, but by letting all things fall to the ground which trouble or excite you. This is no work, but is, as it were, a setting down a fluid to settle that has become turbid through agitation.—Madame Guyon.

Case And Comment

By Chas. B. Showalter

THE campaign of the C.I.O. against the Ford Motor Co., and the strike against the Republic Steel Co., and its affiliates, serves to us another warning of the dangerous march of Communism in the United States.

The C.I.O. backed by the Communist party in the United States and the Third International of Moscow, are seeking to change our form of government. They are trying to upset our social and economic system. They have made far greater progress toward both ends than the majority of Americans realize.

The greatest menace against which America contends today is Communism. John L. Lewis, leader of the C.I.O., is listed on the Communist Honor Roll for 1937, printed in "Western Worker," January 7, 1937. This newspaper is the western organ of the Communist party, U.S.A., section of the Communist International.

They also print a booklet, price 10 cents—"Join the C.I.O. and Help Build a Soviet America."

Without doubt we are facing a crisis, as serious, perhaps more so, than the crisis precipitated by slavery and secession.

There are those who honestly believe that our present form of government has out-lived its usefulness and is, as at present constituted, unable to meet the social and economic needs of its citizens, and should therefore be changed so as to transfer all authority to the executive in Washington.

There are others who advocate change for no other reason except to further their own selfish ambitions and their lust for power. And they have a tremendous following among the week-kneed, who would rather say "Me too," than to risk reprisals. And then there are the millions who "don't care a rap," so long as they get theirs.

Surely it is time for some of us to stop and think, for without doubt, the trend at present is obviously in the direction of some form of dictatorship or communism, or Collectivism. And whether it be a dictatorship of the proletariat, or a dictatorship of the intelligentsia, or a dictatorship of him with the lovely-bed-time-story voice, those who advocated the change and also the rest of us, will find them-

Gaddin' Around with BILL PEET

"SEE America first."

This slogan that has been used for years, is still used to dress up attractive magazine advertisements of American's famous vacation spots for winter and summer.

Returning on a late trolley car from Pasadena it was my good fortune to sit next to a well known Sierra Madre businessman and by way of starting conversation I asked, "Where are you going to spend your vacation if you decide to take one?"

"Right here at home," he snapped back at me, "why should I take my family north, east, south or west when there are vacation spots within a few hours auto trip offering ideal recreation . . . distant fields may look greener to many but not to me."

"How many Sierra Madreans really know this part of California? How many know their own mountains or the neighboring ranges, San Bernardino and San Jacinto?"

My fellow passenger waxed enthusiastic as he continued, "If one is looking for scenic wonders we have 'em. From Mt. Lowe on the west looking down upon Los Angeles and the surrounding valley to $10,800 feet. Mt. San Jacinto on the southeast overlooking the Coachella Valley and the Salton Sea, and visible for many miles. This area alone offers the vacationist every possible inducement."

"Winding bridge paths through tall sugar-pine forests, clear, cold streams stocked with trout, lakes with swimming and fishing facilities and numerous resorts and public camping grounds certainly make these local mountains an ideal summer retreat."

"For scenic mountain roads, the Angeles Crest Highway, the Rim-of-the-World Drive, and the Palms to Pines Highway compare favorably with any in the world."

He went on to say that he has only to look about you to confirm that statement. And then he said that a few of us still believe that good, old-fashioned representative and constitutional democracy is the best form of government ever invented.

Democracy, as we have known and practiced it in America since 1776, is not only a system of government, but is also a way of life. The American character, American culture, American procedure, are entirely Anglo-Saxon, by inheritance and by tradition, and freedom is born in the blood.

We have been fighting for our freedom and for self-government since our ancestors wrested the Magna Charta from King James. And we will continue to fight for them to the end of the chapter.

By temperament and by inheritance we are completely disqualified to fit into any of the schemes of the collectivist or the communist. And certainly our pride of ancestry forbids that we should ever submit to any form of despotic tyranny.

The ideals of the Slav and the Latin, from whence cometh most of our present ills, will no more fuse with our Anglo-Saxon methods, than will oil with water. And we have demonstrated by practical experience, to our own complete satisfaction, that constitutional democracy is the best form of government for us, and in fact, the only form we will tolerate.

Recently Mr. Mussolini sneeringly asserted that the Italian democracy was better than ours because they cared for the submerged tenth. All of which, of course, is not true, because in the first place, the Italian government is not a democracy, and in the second place, we also care for the submerged tenth and they live better than the Italian, or any other nation's nine-tenths.

We maintain a standard of living so far above any other people that they do not even hope for it. But the submerged tenth is, like the poor, always with us, under any government or under any social arrangement they are, and will continue to be, a perplexing problem.

and that's taking in plenty of territory.

"The Mount Wilson country, Crystal Lake recreation park, Prairie Forks, and Big Pines Recreation parks, Lake Arrowhead, Big Bear Lake, Barton Flats and Big Meadows areas, Mt. San Geronimo recreation area and Mt. San Jacinto State Park provide high places with bracing air."

"And all within half a day's drive from Sierra Madre—why should I look elsewhere for a spot in which to spend a vacation with my family?"

After hearing the man talk I had made up my mind about my vacation—if and when.

Our neighboring city of Arcadia is getting a bit cocky these days.

It is rumored that another moving picture theatre is about to be built, somebody has made application to open a roller skating rink, and a woman claims to have seen a pure white gopher making merry in her back yard.

First thing you know a promoter will barge into town and promote professional wrestling.

Arcadia believes in advertising and keeping its name before the public.

"A prophet is without honor in his own country." Somebody wrote that somewhere.

Sierra Madreans should be reminded that a native son, Sellwyn Myers, is rapidly forging to the front in theatrical circles—headed straight for the top, outsiders predict.

The young man could probably use a little encouragement and it would certainly not be amiss to throw some sort of a shindig for him, just to let him know that the home folks are in his corner.

THIS AND THAT

An optimist is a person who thinks he knows a place where he can borrow money. A pessimist is a person who has tried. There are several good five-cent cigars in this country. The trouble is that they cost 15 cents.

News dispatches record that a New Yorker was taken to court because sparks from his cigar lighter ignited a fire that damaged a barroom. If the cigar lighter is anything like one that I own, the poor mug probably set off the blaze in celebration of the fact that the danged thing worked.

TOWN PICK UPS

Sierra Madreans did not have to be urged to buy paper poppies . . . If you had hollered "Skippy," at the recent pet show, a dozen dogs would have wagged their tails in reply . . . I once knew a guy who owned a dog called "Scraper" and instead of the poodle running away, he rushed towards his master . . . Al Myers denies that he proposed to lay out the baseball diamond he promised on the lot recently purchased by the city which lies adjacent to the Municipal building . . . The date of the Firemen's dance is June 5—don't forget it . . . I bumped smack into Cmdr. Foster Bumpus at the Hobby Show. He appeared to enjoy the various exhibits . . . The Uptown Theatre, Lamanda Park, is a popular spot for Sierra Madreans and the house manager, C. G. Argus, has as his assistant Miss Josephine Meader . . . "What's the latest Scotch story?" one of the boys inquired of Jock Buchan, and the sly dog replied, "It's not out yet man." . . . Woodson Jones has just finished reading "Gone With the Wind." He started some time last year . . . Mrs. Martens, in charge of the recent cooking school sponsored by THE NEWS, says that the Sierra Madre Hotel is one of best appointed hosteleries, for a city of this size, she has even partitioned . . . Everybody is guessing as to just what will be built on the corner formerly occupied by the old Town Hall. Nobody appears to know . . . Let's pull for a lot of sunshine over the coming week-end.

ADIOS—Will broadcast again next week.

The.... Watch Tower

By Perley Poore Sheehan

EVERY now and then — not very often — we're asked to talk to some literary group. Mostly of literary aspirants. Fine young people—no literary aspirant is ever really old. As you stand in front of such a group you feel and see a sort of sparkle — of sympathy, imagination, of light-hearted daring. You're the old-timer. You've been in the game for nigh on fifty years. You're no great shucks. But at least you've made your living at it—got into "Who's Who." And now you're going to tell 'em. What?

HERE'S a quotation from Sherwin Cody. You'll find it in his book on Poe. It's in our Library. "Nervous diseases," he says, "are not very well understood, and few persons who are not writers themselves realize the exhausting character of literary composition, especially when it is done against a hostile world, and under the strain of worry and poverty." (Shall we skip what follows? No? O.K.) "The writer has in mind two young friends who, in recent times, struggling to attain literary recognition as Poe did, though with far less accomplishment than his, sank under the strain and died, one of paresis and one of apoplexy."

HE goes on to say that a study of literary history would reveal scores of such. We'd say so. We must have known at least a score in our own small round; then at least another score, slain by success as certainly as the others were slain by their lack of it. We try to think of some writers who are happy because of their writing. There must be some—maybe a lot. But we've never met them. If they were happy it was because they were endowed with all the gifts that make for happiness, not just because they were writers.

IT is true that your writer—whether he "sells" or not—is usually so endowed. We've lived among writers all our life. All sorts. And we believe that, on the whole, they are as happy as, say, the average dentist, or street-car motorman, or millionaire—representing three other professional groups with whom we've also been long familiar. We say, "on the whole," for your writer, unlike these others, seldom has a fixed income of happiness, so to speak. He may get his share, as we say; but he gets it in gobs. His graph of happiness is apt to show cloud-kissing peaks—followed by the most ghastly depressions.

WHICH leads us up to one of the things we've always wanted to say to literary groups—and never quite had the nerve to—until lately. And that is: Better stay out of this "literary game" unless you're tough and can take it on the chin. Not once. Nor seven times. But seventy times seven. That is, if it's mere money and fame you're after; or any selfish, self-willed motive. In that case parachute-jumping might be the better bet. Safer. Better paid. And not so likely to sicken your soul.

AND that last brings us to something else we've always wanted to say—and have said, too, whenever we thought the folks we were talking to had come to some such conclusion themselves. To-wit: Writing should never have been looked upon as merely a trade—as simply one more way to make a living. The degradation of the writing-craft is one of the greatest sins of the world today, and the father of countless other sins—wars, hates generally, indifference to all cruelties. Writing is a sacred thing. Writers should be priests; or avowed Franciscans.

NOT that all writing should be solemn. God forbid!—as St. Paul used to say. St. Francis sang. The great Erasmus—inspired of Rabelais—was a witty and charming writer. Beauty and laughter, just these, as ends, are as well worth writing for, no doubt, as Love or Truth. For we do think you'll find as many clowns, pulp-writers, and poets in heaven, perhaps, as statesmen. But writers who write—no matter what—so long as it sells? Not so good. Not even at a thousand a week down there in Hollywood. Ask young Max Miller. ("For the Sake of Shadows," at the Library.) He knows.

NO. Not for nothing was that machinery for dreaming planted in the human brain. It was DeQuincey who said that. Or, more precious than the machinery for dreaming, that quality someone refers to as "the sense of sympathy with the invisible." As if, after all, your writer—your real writer—were a sort of amanuensis, ready ever to the dictation of his own high individual angelic master. And no more anxious, that writer, as to whether or not he'd get his money when pay-day came around than would be, say, the personal secretary of Henry Ford.

RADICALS CARRIED LABOR'S PROGRAM TOO FAR, AND LOST

By RALPH H. TAYLOR

Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California

SOME of the bitter complaints of radical members of the State Legislature, during post-mortems on the session just ended, are reminiscent of the classic remark of a father, suffering from parental blindness, who exclaimed, as his son's regiment paraded by: "Everybody's out of step but my son, John!" Out-of-step dissenters, back in their home districts, will undoubtedly seek to excuse their own ineffectiveness by denouncing their fellow lawmakers as "reactionary."

The truth of the matter, however, is that the 1937 Legislature, when it convened, promised to be one of the most liberal in the state's history. But liberals went radical and defeated their own cause. It was the old, old story of carrying things to extremes, until the inevitable reaction set in.

The United States Constitution begins, "We, the people . . ." And in the final analysis, "We, the people" rebel when any group or faction, suddenly elevated to dominance, attempts to ride rough-shod over the rights of the people as a whole.

The nation's time-buying debt now is better than nine billion. It was only six billion in 1929, according to the Department of Commerce.

HE WAS THE NATION'S ONLY BATCHELOR PRESIDENT. GROVER CLEVELAND, AS TWENTY-SECOND PRESIDENT, ASSUMED OFFICE AS A BATCHELOR BUT MARRIED MISS FRANCES FOLSOM, IN THE WHITE HOUSE, THE FOLLOWING YEAR (1886). BUCHANAN WAS SUPPOSE TO HAVE LEFT AN ESTATE WHICH WAS BEING VALUED UP TO $50,000,000. MANY HEIRS APPEARED FOR IT, BUT IT PROVED A HOAX.

WILLIAM RUFUS OR WILLIAM I (1066-1100) KING OF ENGLAND, WAS CALLED RUFUS BECAUSE OF HIS RED HAIR. HE WAS THE SON OF WILLIAM I (THE CONQUEROR). HE WAS CROWNED KING SEP. 26, 1087. HE CAME IMMEDIATELY TO ENGLAND, SETTLING THE TREASURY AND WAS CROWNED AT WESTMINSTER. THE COURT OF ENGLAND'S FIRST BATCHELOR KING WAS NOT GRACED BY THE PRESENCE OF A ROYAL LADY. UPHOLD ITS TRADITION OF REFINEMENT. WILLIAM RUFUS MET HIS DEATH IN THE NEW FOREST IN 1100 BY AN ARROW DISCHARGED BY WALTER TIREL, LORD OF FOVE, WHICH IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN TURNED IN ITS FLIGHT BY GLANCING FROM THE BACK OF A HART. HE WAS BURIED IN WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL.

Convicted Arcadia Congressman Home On Parole

Prepared to devote much of his time to a magazine for war veterans, which he has published for many years, former Congressman John R. Hoepfel of the Twelfth district has reopened his old offices in Arcadia.

A former postmaster at Arcadia, Hoepfel is on parole from District of Columbia authorities after serving several months of a one-year sentence for asserted conspiracy to sell a West Point appointment. His son, convicted with him, still is in a Washington, D.C., jail.

This Ice Box Will Be Moved Inside

A barefoot prowler with a liking for potatoes and gravy has convinced Mrs. H. M. Hickok, 132 South Hermosa avenue, that the outdoors is no place to keep an icebox.

Mrs. Hickok heard a noise the other night, but thought it was just another cat or dog.

But when she got up the next morning and started to prepare breakfast she discovered that someone had eaten the plate of potatoes and gravy she set out on top of the icebox the night before.

Only claw to the hungry prowler was a set of footprints leading up to the icebox.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of The Boys

QUITE a number of local firemen and their wives attended the San Gabriel Firemen's Association meeting and dance at Glendale last Wednesday where President Bill Richard put on a great show. The Glendale Fireman's orchestra played the music and it was so good that even our old fellows failed to miss a dance. Our Chief honored his namesake, the president, by struggling thru' every dance, but he showed distinct signs of fatigue.

Around the tables where chicken pie was served our Sierra Madre firemen were conspicuous. "Whitely," the department's dog mascot accompanied the folks and made quite a hit. He wore a green coat with the S. M. F. D. printed on it.

Vern Udell shakes a wicked hoof, we observed, and so does Frank Lovell, but as to some of the others, they are better plow hands. This does not apply to the ladies, of course.

This was just practice night for our own big dance to be held to-morrow evening at the Woman's clubhouse. By that time the sore leg muscles should be ready for another attack of soreness.

The recent dampness should be a great comfort to the forestry men, but to Jim Heasley it is a headache. The swimming pool will be open this summer some time, if we get any summer.

Bankers Are On Trail Of Crawford

Picture And Description Of Bogus Mountie Broadcast Over The Land

novel career of William H. Crawford, self-styled Canadian mountie charged by police here with unloading many "rubber" checks in Sierra Madre and vicinity recently.

The bankers bulletin carries a photograph of Crawford, "alias Ross C. Parsons, C. Hartwell, etc." taken in 1931 and identified in Palmer, Mass., where the man induced a local merchant to cash a personal check — similar to those cashed here—for $100. The photograph reveals a pleasantly frank face, surmounted by close-cropped hair, while the man's eyes, wide and disarming, seem anything but the eyes of a confirmed jail-bird.

Following is the Bulletin's description of Crawford, who is also wanted in Burbank and several Massachusetts cities: 39 years old, height 5 feet 7 and three-eighths inches; weight 180 pounds; medium complexion, hazel eyes, medium blonde hair, German-Irish nationality; claims to be a doctor of medicine.

Teachers Say Goodbye To Mrs. Moore

There is always so much pleasure connected with the paths that necessarily become a part of departures that it is with mixed feelings of a get-together or farewell festivity, Mrs. Eva Moore's host of old friends are doing everything to make the "good-byes" seem less permanent.

In this list is Mrs. Yerda Adams of Wilson avenue, who entertained on Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5, using Mrs. Moore's resignation as a member of the Sierra Madre school staff as the incentive.

All members of the faculty together with colleagues who taught with Mrs. Moore a number of years ago were present. The latter journeyed from far and near: Mrs. Wm. Emery (formerly Miss Church) who came from Whittier; Mrs. Arthur Bachmann (nee Miss Sutter) who now lives in Newport; Mrs. W. Menke of Long Beach (Miss Wildman), and Mrs. M. A. Collins of Pasadena, who brought her year-old baby with her, besides Mrs. Edward Schneberger of Sierra Madre.

The appearance of a handsome combination coffee table and magazine stand as a parting gift, brought all words to a hush except for the words of surprised gratitude which the honoree uttered. Following this surprise, a repast was served from a daintily appointed buffet-table upon which a large cake decorated in pink and white and saying, "Auld Lang Syne" was cut. Sandwiches and other delicacies augmented this piece de resistance.

A memory book was also presented to the honoree with requests that a last word be inscribed. Besides the faculty, Mrs. Mabel Nicoloff, Mrs. Patterson, and Mrs. Carleton bade the honoree many good wishes.

Cheyneys Greet Big L.A. Audience

Twelve hundred book-lovers gathered at the May Company, Los Angeles, last Thursday to hear Lucia Trent and Ralph Cheyney. These boosters of Sierra Madre's fame read from their new book, "Thank You, America!" containing poems dedicated to Mrs. W. J. Lawless and Nouredin Addis. They also autographed copies of their book, which within two months after its publication is selling in its third edition. Mrs. Lillian Burkhardt Goldsmith is conductor of these readings by celebrities, designed to give the public the privilege of meeting famous authors personally. June third was a busy day for the Cheyneys with this personal appearance in the morning and the Sierra Madre Woman's Club Literary Tea in the afternoon.

BECAUSE COOKED WITH GAS

The kind of fuel you use in cooking has a great deal to do with flavor and texture. It takes uniform oven heat, for example, to roast fowl evenly. Where the heat is not uniform, some portion may be overdone, while other portions are not cooked enough.

Only natural gas, in the modern automatic gas ranges, gives you uniform temperature throughout the oven. There are no "hot spots," no "cool spots." That's one reason why gas-roasted meats taste better.

Here's another reason: gas gives you the exact degree of heat you need. This is important because fowl, like most other foods, has a certain temperature at which it roasts best. Heat that varies will not produce best results. With a modern gas range, all you have to do is to set the temperature regulator!

And what's more, it costs far less to cook with gas. See the 1937 gas ranges at your dealer's or your gas company, today.

BIG FILM HITS AT THE ARCADIA THEATRE

Freddie Bartholomew and Tyrone Power in "Lloyds of London," world-famous British insurance company story, heads the bill today and tomorrow at the Arcadia Theatre. The companion feature is "Secret Valley."

Coming Sunday is "Walkie," with Bing Crosby and Martha Raye. Shirley Ross and Bob Burns. "Fair Warning" is the second feature.

RED CROSS NOW NEAR THE CITY HALL

Their second move within two weeks, following the wrecking of their old headquarters, the old Town Hall building, officials of the Red Cross chapter yesterday were getting settled in the E. Waldo Ward building at the corner of Sierra Madre boulevard and Victoria Lane, opposite the city hall.

SECOND THRILL FOR LOCAL SCHOOL GRADUATES

Last days of school — who doesn't remember them? Final exams, reviews, wonderment as to what the next teacher would be like, and crowning ecstasy of all, the play that preceded graduation!

While the sixth grade at the grammar school had already gone through these throes before their class play, "The Elfin Mound," another joyous occasion is in store for everyone after school year this time; and that is when Mme. de Beaulieu presents her artistic offering, "The Bluebird" on Saturday, June 12, in the auditorium.

The entire proceeds of the drama will be directed toward the Parent-Teacher Association's welfare fund.

Rehearsals have filled the past weeks; and all indications point to a brilliant summer spectacle. Pupils from Mme's Pasadena, Arcadia, and Sierra Madre classes will take part.

It is possible at this time to give a few of the names of the performers, as follows: Marilyn Plan, Lorraine Melvin, Adrienne Aye, Marilyn Rhodes, Barbara Colligan, Loren Pratt (Maybe), Geraldine Davis, Bud Mullender, Frances Robertson, Bob Fletcher, Genevieve Benadum, Jean Vener, Gloria Dougherty, Sylvia Shippey, Barbara Brown, Ernestine Easterling, Dorothy Alley, Sylvia Aizant, Rose Marie Peak, and Barbara and Beverly Sanders.

The writer has had the good fortune to espy some of the drawings for the stage scenes and costumes, and for some reason or other, recollections of another gorgeous spectacle came to mind—"The Miracle Play," produced in Hollywood by the incomparable Reinhardt several years ago. Do you recall those molten gold gowns and mediaeval headresses? Not that these will be like that; but the same richness of effect and play of color will be similar.

—Mildred Bolms.

"NIGHT MUST FALL" AT THE LYRIC THEATRE

"Night Must Fall," a gripping story of a psychopathic murderer, played by Robert Montgomery, opens tomorrow at the Lyric Theatre in Monrovia. Hit No. 2 is the new Stan Laurel-Oliver Hardy film, "Way Out West." The bill also includes a color cartoon, "Mickey's Amateurs."

'Round The Town

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, 247½ North Mt. Trail avenue, spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. Sanborn at Santa Ana.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Richards, 430 Sturtevant Drive, on Thursday attended the wedding of their nephew, Edward Richards, Jr., of Los Angeles, and Miss Beatrice Bauer of Burbank. A lovely wedding breakfast followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents at Burbank.

Misses Wilma and Dorothy Smith, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, 198 North Lima street, spent the weekend at Norwalk with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Terwilliger.

George W. Pearson of the Foot-hill bookshop is reported as getting along very nicely, following a major operation at the Huntington Memorial hospital on Monday of this week.

BECAUSE COOKED WITH GAS

The kind of fuel you use in cooking has a great deal to do with flavor and texture. It takes uniform oven heat, for example, to roast fowl evenly. Where the heat is not uniform, some portion may be overdone, while other portions are not cooked enough.

Only natural gas, in the modern automatic gas ranges, gives you uniform temperature throughout the oven. There are no "hot spots," no "cool spots." That's one reason why gas-roasted meats taste better.

Here's another reason: gas gives you the exact degree of heat you need. This is important because fowl, like most other foods, has a certain temperature at which it roasts best. Heat that varies will not produce best results. With a modern gas range, all you have to do is to set the temperature regulator!

And what's more, it costs far less to cook with gas. See the 1937 gas ranges at your dealer's or your gas company, today.
